MESSAGE FROM CAIRMAN

My dear SISATARIANS,

At the outset, I wish you and your families a Very Happy New Year and sincerely hope 2017 will catapult SISA into a buoyant and vibrant force in India's service industry radar.

Honestly, I am a bit dismayed with the overall performance of my able 'Lieutenants' and 'Soldiers' in the previous quarter of the F/Y 2016 – 2017. I was hoping your efforts will exceed my expectations, unfortunately that has not happened. I however do realize that, just as in a business cycle, your performance has its highs and lows. I am a diehard optimist and am pretty sure; you will buckle up for some exciting journey ahead. So, do keep your spirits high and work relentlessly to make up the deficiencies of the past quarter.

Our entire workforce at the Corporate Office, under the able leadership of your MD, constantly strives to ensure that you get full support to fulfill your obligations to our clients. There can not be grey spots where client satisfaction is involved. This is paramount in any service industry and ours is no exception.

Sir Richard Branson had said, 'Keep your employees happy, they will keep your clients happy'. Your employees are your arms; in the form of security guards, housekeepers and drivers. Ensure their happiness and your 'Customer Satisfaction Report' will never be in the red. Always remember, your 'employees' and your Gods, respect them and look after their welfare at all times.

Cheers for a great New Year ahead!!!

Maj. S. K. Sharma (Retd)
CHAIRMAN

From the Editors Desk

Dear Readers,

We have just stepped into the threshold of yet another year, having bid goodbye to 2016. It is time to move on with greater zest and spirit, ensuring a much more rewarding experience for all of us.

In our line of business are no carbon footprints. What we leave behind is a legacy of having served our clients well and to their utmost satisfaction. Our clients will become our brand ambassadors, when their experience of having partnered with us, enhances their profit and peace of mind. It is towards this goal that we must all concentrate on in 2017.

I feel it is my sacred duty to beckon you once again to the call of duty. Duty towards SISA by your participation in SISA Times. It will give you immense happiness to see your articles, pictures and stories feature in the next edition of SISA Times. So take time out and share your stories with us.

Wishing you and your families a Very Happy and fulfilling New Year.
