MESSAGE FROM CHAIRMAN

We are finally in the last quarter of the F/Y 2016 – 2017 and time for me to take stock of my company's overall health. It has been a nostalgic journey for me, reviewing each quarter meticulously and trying to figure out ways to take SISA on an overdrive.

I had full faith in my dear MD Sameer Sharma and his team to stand out and deliver, if even in the face of stiff market competition. And he did!!! With support from stalwarts like Siddiqui and my front line Managers, we managed to bag one banking contract after the other. Besides additions to our existing banking contracts with Vijaya Bank and Federal Bank, fresh Pan India contracts with Allahabad Bank and Oriental Bank of Commerce (OBC), saw SISA sail into fresh waters with renewed energy and zeal. Deployment of nearly 550 guards and armed guards at OBC within a matter of days again reaffirmed my conviction that our team work is surely the best in the industry. I take this opportunity to thank each one of you, who were directly or indirectly involved in the deployment process. Well Done!

There was still some good news for all of us, coming in from Team Nagpur. Capt. Govind Pareekh is days away from procuring the Work Order for a 300 guards contract in Chattisgarh, to kick start the advent of the new F/Y 2017 – 2018. This single contract is expected to exceed 900 guards in the not too distant future. My heartiest congratulations to Team Nagpur in general and Capt. Pareekh in particular. I am confident that Team SISA will collectively ensure, that we emerge as the fastest growing security company in India, before the end of the next Financial Year.

Each one of my beloved SISATARIANS must acknowledge the fact, that it is only cash profits that can keep the wheels of my company going. Developing new businesses, timely submission of bills, prompt collection of payments are fundamental to our business. Keeping your customers delighted with A++ service quality, will automatically translate into making them advocates for our services, so that other business houses will begin to shift loyalty to us. The more we grow and prosper, the better your career path will be. So go full throttle and give your best during the coming Financial Year. Best of luck and God bless.

Cheers!!!

Maj S K Sharma (Retd)
Chairman

Editor's Column

SISA Times has come a long way since its first edition was rolled out. Much has happened since and I must confess, it has been a pleasant and rewarding journey for most of us. As we draw close to the end of the last quarter of our 2016 - 2017 edition, it's time to reflect and ponder on our material contents and its impact on all SISATARIANS.

We have been repeatedly requesting our readers for their feedback and inputs to make reading SISA Times, a pleasurable experience. I take this opportunity to thank my colleague Tania Bhatia, for her proactive attitude in ensuring that we roll out our e-magazine on time.

Our respected Chairman and our Managing Director, have all along been supportive, to ensure that SISA Times never gets derailed. It is our very own magazine and will continue to be that way for years to come. Thank you Sirs, for your continued support and advice.

The next edition of SISA Times will have a complete make over for which we are already on the job. Do hope you enjoy reading your house magazine and please let us know how best we can improve readership quality.

Look bright and never forget to smile.

Garhwal Himalayas Calling

My diehard passion for travel has taken me far and wide. From Everest Base Camp in Nepal to the Swiss Alps in Switzerland. From the Rocky Mountains in Colorado, USA to the deserts of North Africa. From the glacial fields near the North Pole to the azure waters in the Gulf of Mexico in Cancun, Mexico. It has been a never ending story of travel in search of nature at its best, the world over.

Despite all that I have seen so far, there is just one place in our very own country which beckons to me like a mother to her son. It is the place where I have spent much of my childhood in a boarding school and which continues to be my first love. Garhwal Himalayas.

The moment you drive up from Hardwar towards Devaprayag or from Mussoorie towards Yamunotri or even from Rudraprayag towards Bardinath; you will be awe inspired by the sheer beauty of the mountains. They say, watching Neelkanth Peak in Badrinath on a moonlit night will make you go dumbstruck. Such is the beauty of this majestic peak. If you are fit, trek up 19 kms from Gangotri to Gaumukh (the glacial source of river Bhagirathi, later forming the Ganga) and rediscover yourself in the folds of the 'frightfully bewitching' sight of ageless glaciers and towering white peaks. Such is the magnificence of the Himalayas in the backdrop of the mighty Bhagirathi peaks.

I have extensively travelled every mountain path, passes, valleys and gorge in God's Abode, the Garhwal Himalayas. Let me tell you, there is NO PLACE on earth to compare with the beauty, grandeur, peace and spiritual sanctity of these mountains. Go there while there is still time, since the last time I went to Gaumukh, the glacial cow mouth shape had lost its natural shape.

Sleep well my friends, for the road is long and arduous.
