From the CEO's Desk

Hand Book of Life: Key to lead a Healthy & Successful life.

Do's

- ❖ Live with 3 E's – Energy, Enthusiasm & Empathy.
- ❖ Read more books than the previous year.
- ❖ Sit in silence for at least 10 minutes each day. It will help you in relaxing and revitalizing your mind.
- ❖ Devote some time to practice Meditation, Yoga and Prayer.
- ❖ Walk for 10-30 minutes each day; while you walk smile.
- ❖ Learn to smile and laugh more.
- ❖ Each day give something good to others.

Don'ts

- ❖ Don't compare your life with others; you have no idea of what their journey is all about.
- ❖ Don't have negative thoughts or things beyond your control. Invest your energy in the positive present moments.
- ❖ Don't over do; keep your limits.
- ❖ Don't take yourself seriously. No one else does.
- ❖ Don't waste your precious energy on gossip.
- ❖ Envy is waste of time. You already have what you need & deserve.
- ❖ Forget your issues of past. Don't remind your partner of past mistakes. This will ruin your present happiness.
- ❖ No one is in charge of your happiness, except you.
- ❖ You don't have to win every argument. Agree to disagree.

Glimpses of ERS Event

INSPIRATIONAL QUOTES

The only way of finding the limits of the possible is by going beyond them into the impossible.

Arthur C. Clarke

It was a high counsel that I once heard given to a young person, "Always do what you are afraid to do."

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Nothing can stop the man with the right mental attitude from achieving his goal; nothing on earth can help the man with the wrong mental attitude.

Thomas Jefferson

We are all motivated by a keen desire for praise, and the better a man is, the more he is inspired to glory.

Cicero

Four steps to achievement:

Plan purposefully.

Prepare prayerfully.

Proceed positively.

Pursue persistently.

William Arthur Ward

Lesson in Life

Many a times, we find it very difficult to differentiate between good and bad, wrong & right and end up getting influenced by others without using our conscience and brain.

Here is an excellent write up (letter of Abraham Lincoln to his son's headmaster) that can definitely help changing one's personality and thinking, if understood well.

Abraham Lincoln's letter to his son's headmaster :

My son will have to learn I know, that all men are not just, all men are not true. But teach him that for every scoundrel there is a hero; that for every selfish politician, there is a dedicated leader. Teach him that for every enemy there is a friend.

It will take time, I know; but teach him, if you can, that a dollar earned is of far more value than five found.

Teach him to learn to lose and also to enjoy winning. Steer him away from envy, if you can.

Teach him the secret of quiet laughter. Let him learn early that the bullies are the easiest to lick.

Teach him, if you can, the wonder of books...but also give him quiet time to ponder over the eternal mystery of birds in the sky, bees in the sun and flowers on a green hill-side.

In school teach him it is far more honorable to fail than to cheat. Teach him to have faith in his own ideas, even if everyone tells him they are wrong.

Teach him to be gentle with gentle people and tough with the tough. Try to give my son the strength not to follow the crowd when everyone is getting on the band wagon.

Teach him to listen to all men. But teach him also to filter all he hears on a screen of truth and take only the good that comes through. Teach him, if you can, how to laugh when he is sad. Teach him there is no shame in tears.

Teach him to scoff at cynics and to beware of too much sweetness. Teach him to sell his brawn and brain to the highest bidders; but never to put a price tag on his heart and soul.

Teach him to close his ears to a howling mob... and to stand and fight if he thinks he is right. Treat him gently; but do not cuddle him because only the test of fire makes fine steel. Let him have the courage to be impatient, let him have the patience to be brave.

Teach him always to have the sublime faith in himself because then he will always have the sublime faith in mankind.
This is a big order; but see what you can do...

He is such a fine little fellow, my son.
