Search For REAL PEACE

There was a king, who offered a prize to the artist, who would paint the best picture depicting peace. The king saw all the paintings and selected two, which he liked. He had to choose between these two. One painting was of a calm lake : The lake was a perfect mirror for peaceful towering mountains all round it. Overhead was a blue sky with white clouds. All who saw this painting thought that it was perfect picture of peace. The other had mountains too, but rugged and bare. Above was angry sky, from which rain was pouring, with lightning. Down the mountain side tumbled a foaming waterfall. This did not look peaceful at all. When the king looked closely, he saw behind the waterfall a tiny bush mother bird had built her nest. There in the midst of angry environment sat the mother bird on her nest in perfect peace which picture you think won the prize. It was the second one. Do you know, why ?

Because, the King explained,

"Peace does not mean to be in a place where there is no noise, disturbance, trouble or hard work. Peace means to be in the midst of all those things and yet be calm in your heart. That is the real meaning of peace".

Inspirational Quotes

- ✦ Failures do what is tension, while winners do what is GOAL achieving.
- ✦ Try not to become a man of success but a man of value.
- ✦ It is not enough to take steps which may some day lead to a goal; each step must be itself a goal and a step likewise.
- ✦ It is difficult to say what is impossible, for dream of yesterday is the hope of today and the reality of tomorrow.
- ✦ Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.
- ✦ The most difficult phase of life is not when No one understand you, it is when don't understand yourself.
- ✦ Those who try to do something and fail are infinitely better than those who try to do nothing and succeed.
- ✦ When you wake up in the morning, you have two choices, go back to sleep and dream your dreams, or wake up and chase these dreams.

Lesson in life

An Elephant and a Fly

A disciple and his teacher were walking through the forest. The disciple was disturbed by the fact that his mind was in constant unrest.

He asked his teacher, "Why most people's minds are restless, and only a few possess a calm mind? What can one do to still the mind?"

The teacher looked at the disciple, smiled and said, "I will tell you a story. An elephant was standing and picking leaves from a tree. A small fly came, flying and buzzing near his ear. The elephant waved it away with his long ears. Then the fly came again, and the elephant waved it away once more."

This was repeated several times. Then the elephant asked the fly, "Why are you so restless and noisy? Why can't you stay for a while in one place?"

The fly answered: "I am attracted to whatever I see, hear or smell. My five senses pull me constantly in all directions and I cannot resist them. What is your secret? How can you stay so calm and still?"

The elephant stopped eating and said, "My five senses do not rule my attention. Whatever I do, I get immersed in it. Now that I am eating, I am completely immersed in eating. In this way I can enjoy my food and chew it better. I rule and control my attention, and not the other way around."

Upon hearing these words, the disciple's eyes opened wide and a smile appeared on his face. He looked at his teacher and said, "I understand! If my five senses are in control of my mind and attention, then my mind is in constant unrest. If I am in charge of my five senses and attention, then my mind becomes calm."

"Yes, that's right", answered the teacher, "The mind is restless and goes wherever the attention is. Control your attention, and you control your mind."
